May Bring Together Rival Sets of Lawyers Who See Danger to Their Client in the Correspondence of Mrs. Holman.

Rogeyr O'Meara, former Chief of Police, at Pittsburg, now working up testimony for the defense of Harry Thaw, has been brought here hotfoot by the exclusive publication in The World of important letters written by Evelyn Nesbit Thaw's mother and her stepfather, Holman, to Stanford White. O'Meara spent a busy half hour at the Tombs to-day talking with the young millionaire murderer and with Evelyn Thaw.

O'Meara, according to despatches, was closeted with Mrs. Holman at Pittsburg for five hours yesterday discussing the effect that the printing of her letters would have upon the case. Mrs. Holman told him that she Some Untold Stories of
